Now there's all sorts of medicines that you can buy No matter what ailment you've got But I know a special one you ought to try you'll find it's the best of the lot

Chorus:

Its my Auntie Maggie's home-made re me dy, it's guaranteed never to fail That's the stuff that will do the trick Its sold at every chemist for "one and a kick".
Now if you've got lum bago, rheu matics or gout, or a pain in your Robert E. Lee Don't kick up a shindy, you'll never get windy with Auntie Maggie's Reme dy

If you set your alarm clock for eight in the morning you're bound to wake up I'll agree But I'll bet you by heaven, you'll wake up at seven With my Auntie Maggie's Reme dy

Now In a young lady's bedroom I went by mistake My intentions were honest you see She shouted with laughter, "I know what you're after Its my Auntie Maggie's Reme dy."

Chorus

Now when the baby starts crying, there's always a reason
And if you in spect him you'll see,
The poor little chappy has covered his nappy
With Auntie Maggie's Remedy
Now I went to a doctor, I wasn't too well and he made me lie on a settee
He said "there's trouble brewing, you've been over doing Your Auntie Maggie's Remedy."
Now I know a girl who was putting on weight, In a spot where it just shouldn't be So I said to Nellie, "Now you rub your ankle,
with Auntie Maggie's Remedy."
