

Daisy A Day

artist:Jud Strunk , writer:Jud Strunk

Some nice changes suggested by Steve Przybelinski

He remembers the first time he met her
He re-members the first thing she said
He re-members the first time he held her
And the night that she came to his bed

He re-members her sweet way of saying
Honey has something gone wrong
He re-members the fun and the teasing
And the reason he wrote her this song

Chorus:

I'll give you a daisy a day dear
I'll give you a daisy a day
I'll love you until the rivers run still
And the four winds we know blow a-way

They would walk down the street in the evening
And for years I would see them go by
And their love that was more than the clothes that they wore
Could be seen in the gleam of their eye

As a kid they would take me for candy
And I'd love to go tagging a-long
We'd hold hands while we walked to the corner
And the old man would sing her his song

CHORUS

Now he walks down the street in the evening
And he stops by the old candy store
And I somehow believe he's be-lieving
He's holding her hand like be-fore

For he feels all her love walking with him
And he smiles at the things she might say
Then the old man walks up to the hill top
And he gives her a daisy a day
