

Knock Knock

artist:Jacl Savoretti , writer:Jack Savoretti

It was a half past nothing on a nowhere night
I had no one to love, I had no one to fight
So I took a walk down Bad News Ave-nue

I had a heart full of blood and a head full of booze
I had nothing to gain, I had nothing to lose
So I stepped inside a tavern and began to play

Bad news, bad news, I'm talking to you
I don't know your name. but I would love to

Next thing I hear " knock knock", who that there at my door?
I hear " knock knock", I think she's back for more

Well, I woke up in the morning with a bad old head
I had poison in my pocket and a body in my bed
If you can get it with small change it might as well be free

Well the sun came up and the ship went down
I went looking through the gutter for the lost and found
And that's when I saw you smiling back at me

Bad news, bad news, I'm talking to you
I don't know your name. but I would love to

Next thing I hear " knock knock", - who that there at my door?
I hear " knock knock"
I think she's back for more, say it again
I hear " knock knock", who that there at my door?
I hear " knock knock", I think she's back for more

Bad news, bad news, I'm talking to you
I don't know your name. but I would love to

Next thing I hear " knock knock", - who that there at my door?
I hear " knock knock"
I think she's back for more, say it again
I hear " knock knock", who that there at my door?
I hear " knock knock", I think she's back for more, say it one more time

I hear knock knock, knock knock, knocketee knock knock knock
I hear her at my door, I hear her coming back for more
