

Salisbury Street

artist:John Williamson , writer:John Williamson

Thanks to Chris Hughes

Now's not the time for wailin'
While there's water in the river
We'll all lay down and cry when it's gone
I'll be a jackass and laugh at every sun-rise
Celebrate the day when it's born

And we'll cruise one more time down the river
While our hearts over-flow with joy
And we'll reminisce our days down Salisbury Street
Salisbury Street, Salisbury Street

Yeah we'll cruise one more time down the Murray
Don't wave the river gums good-bye
Just thank 'em for the shade and the stories
Tomorrow there'll be time to cry

So untie the ropes my darlin's
There's broken cloud to-day
And that lucky 'ole' will paint those billows blush
Don't wanna miss the sundown shining on the water
Chasing sneaky shadows through the bush

And we'll cruise one more time down the river
While our hearts over- flow with joy
And we'll reminisce our days down Salisbury Street
Salisbury Street, Salisbury Street

Yeah we'll cruise one more time down the Murray
Don't wave the river gums good- bye
Just thank 'em for the shade and the stories
Tomorrow there'll be time to cry
Tomorrow there'll be time to cry

Tomorrow there'll be time to cry