

Man's Best Friend Is His Duck, A

artist:The Goodies , writer:The Goodies

Many's the time I've felt lonely (Ohhh)
Many's the time I've felt sad
But now I have found a com-panion
The best pal that I've ever had

Oh who is it carries the papers
When I take him for romps in the park (Ah, your grandfather!)
Who comes when I whistle, who sits when I say
And who doesn't whimper or bark (I know)

Yes, a man's best friend is his duck (His what?!)
Oh a duck will bring you good luck
Oh I don't want a budgie who says naughty words (Get stuffed!)
And I don't take to titmice (squeak) or hummingbirds (Hmmm)
And a hen can do nothing but cluck (Cluck cluck)
No, a man's best friend is his duck

Spoken - play along behind

What is a duck?
A duck is fi-delity with feathers.
A watchdog with webbed feet.
A duck is strong, even when wet.
And when you come home after a hard day
being nibbled by vultures,
something will run down the path to meet you.
Something who cares, your duck.
And as you settle into your armchair,
she'll climb up on your knee,
and as she lays her head on your shoulder,
and lays her egg in your hand,
she'll stick her beak in your ear and whisper softly (Quack).
And you'll know, you'll know you love her,
you'll know because she's your old duck.

Oh a man's best friend is his duck (Quack quack)
A duck is well known for its pluck (Quack quack)
If a burglar breaks in, it'll chase him back (Ooh 'eck!)
And scare him away with a spine chilling (Quack)
'Cos you can get a very nasty suck (slurp)
If you muck a-bout with a duck (Quack quack)

A man's best friend is his duck (All together now)
Quack quack quack quack quack quack quack quack, quack
Oh a man's best friend is his duck
