No one move, no one speak
Please don't say that it's just me, it's not just me,
And even though I won't forget
Just don't want this to end just yet, not just yet

But if I had one chance to freeze time
And stand still and soak in everything
I'd choose right now
If I had one night with sunshine
Could break through and show you everything
I'd choose right now

If this is it, all we have, I know I've done all I can
If this is it
And we can't stop and start again
We can't fast forward to the end
If this is it

But if I had one chance to freeze time
And stand still and soak in everything
I'd choose right now
If I had one night with sunshine
Could break through and show you everything
I'd choose right now

Before the fears that I once had start coming back
And I can take the slings and stones and fire
Because I know you'll make it all worthwhile
And every time I fold, dissolve I'm lying on the ground
You drag me up again, and again
Oh please come back again
Oh please come back again

And I'm so scared, I might forget
Just don't want this to end just yet , not just yet

But if I had one chance to freeze time
And stand still and soak in everything
I'd choose right now
If I had one night with sunshine
Could break through and show you everything
I'd choose right now

Before the fears that I once had start coming back again
