

50 Ways to Carve a Pumpkin - easier

artist:Scott Mead , writer:Paul Simon - Scott Mead

Thanks to Betty Casey

"The carving is easy if you simply let it be.
I'd like to help you in your pumpking-carving spree.
There must be, fifty ways to carve a pumpkin."

She said: "It's really not my habit to in-trude,
But I saw you staring at that gourd and looking quite con-fused,
It's really not so diffi- cult you silly dude.
There must be, fifty ways to carve a pumpkin,
Fifty ways to carve a pumpkin."

Just chop off the lid, Cyd, scoop out the seeds, Reid,
You don't need a plan, Ann, just listen to me.
Hack out the teeth, Keith, gouge out an eye, Guy,
Toss in a light, Dwight, and set your art free.

Ooh, chop off the lid, Cyd, scoop out the seeds, Reid,
You don't need a plan, Ann, just let yourself be.
Hack out the teeth, Keith, gouge out an eye, Guy,
Toss in a light, Dwight, and set your art free.

I said: "O- kay, but I don't know where to be- gin.
Should I shape a nose, or make a goofy grin?
And do I use a knife or a piece of jagged tin?
There must be, fifty ways to carve a pumpkin."

She said: Use a knife or stab it with an awl,
You can use a rusty axe, a sword, or even a chain-saw.
It's not the tool, you fool, don't be so ration-al,
There must be, fifty ways to carve a pumpkin,
Fifty ways to carve a pumpkin."
