

There Is No Christmas Like A Home Christmas

artist:Perry Como , writer:Mickey Addy, Carl Sigman

Thanks David Nelson

There is no Christmas, like a home Christmas,
For that's the time of year all roads lead home.

There is no Christmas, like a home Christmas,
with your Dad and Mother, Sis and Brother there.
With their hearts humming, at your homecoming,
and that merry yuletide spirit in the air.

Christmas bells, Christmas bells, ringing loud and strong.
Follow them, follow them, you've been away too long.

There is no Christmas, like a home Christmas.
For that's the time of year all roads lead home.

There is no Christmas, like a home Christmas,
with your Dad and Mother, Sis an' brother there.
With their hearts humming, at your homecoming,
and that merry yuletide spirit in the air.

Christmas bells, Christmas bells, ringing loud and strong.
Follow them, follow them, you've been away too long.

There is no Christmas, like a home Christmas.
For that's the time of year,
the time all roads lead home. *