

Cowboy Christmas

artist:Clay Walker , writer:M. Jason Greene, Lori Walker, and Ernest Walker (Clay)

It was the night before Christmas,
He was runnin' out of time
The rodeo had ridden him 'bout down to his last dime
He got bucked off back in Denver
And missed the short go a-gain
And now he's wonderin' how he'll make it home
Be-fore it all begins

There'll be a cowboy Christmas goin' on
Ropers and wranglers wrapped up for every- one
And there'll be country cookin' on the stove
Tinsel and lights, egg-nog and mistletoe
Kinfolk from all around comin' home
There'll be a cowboy Christmas goin' on

He'd done a little shoppin' between Phoenix and Cheyenne Got a ropin' bag for Barbie, a new gui-tar for little Ann Picked up a Sunday dress for momma and a Stetson hat for dad
Bought a rockin' horse for Tommy and brother Bill a pair of chaps
But there was one little hitch in this getup -

He had all these presents and no ride home
He looked down at his watch and was about to give up all hope
You see it was almost midnight, less than a minute away
When a jolly man in a red suit pulled up and said
" Don't worry partner, your house is on my way
And if you can hang on for 8 seconds,
That's all it takes to get there on a sleigh"

Now there's a cowboy Christmas goin' on
Ropers and wranglers wrapped up for every-one
And there'll be country cookin' on the stove
Tinsel and lights, egg-nog and mistletoe
Kinfolk from all around comin' home
There'll be a cowboy Christmas
A cowgirl Christmas, that's right
A cowboy Christmas goin' on
