

Burghead Sands

artist:Gaberlunzie writer:Gordon Menzies and Robin Watson

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MOkhqVMo6tQ>

Thanks to Iona Brokenshire

[Em] [C] [Am] [D] [G]

Come a-[G]gain, come a-[Em]gain, ye [C] Burghead [Am] men,
And [D] sail wi' the [D] mornin' [G] tide. [D]
Come a-[G]gain, come a-[Em]gain, through the [C] wind and the [Am] rain,
To the [D] place where you'll [D] always [G] bide. [G]

And you [C] know when you [D] stand on the [G] Burghead [Em] sand
Tho' the [C] years be [Am] ten times [D] ten. [D]
You'll [G] aye be a [Em] slave to the [C] ocean [Am] wave,
'Til you're [D] back on the [D] sea once a-[G]gain. [G]

When the [G] fishing's [Em] done, the [C] harvest [Am] won,
May [D] good your [D] boaties [G] guide, [G]
Tae the [G] harbour [Em] gate, where the [C] women [Am] wait
'Til you're're [D] safely [D] by their [G] side

And you [C] know when you [D] stand on the [G] Burghead [Em] sand
Tho' the [C] years be [Am] ten times [D] ten. [D]
You'll [G] aye be a [Em] slave to the [C] ocean [Am] wave,
'Til you're [D] back on the [D] sea once a-[G]gain. [G]

[G] Born in the [Em] lee of the [C] great North [Am] Sea,
Where the [D] weepin' [D] willows [G] lapped. [D]
[G] Married at [Em] birth, to the [C] Moray [Am] Firth,
And the [D] deck o' a [D] fishin' [G] craft.

And you [C] know when you [D] stand on the [G] Burghead [Em] sand
Tho' the [C] years be [Am] ten times [D] ten. [D]
You'll [G] aye be a [Em] slave to the [C] ocean [Am] wave,
'Til you're [D] back on the [D] sea once a-[G]gain. [G]

Come a-[G]gain, come a-[Em]gain, ye [C] Burghead [Am] men,
Tae the [D] Broch where you'll [D] aye [G] belong. [D]
To the [G] druid's [Em] well, the [C] Clavie's [Am] smell,
And the [D] oyster-[D]catchers [G] song.

And you [C] know when you [D] stand on the [G] Burghead [Em] sand
Tho' the [C] years be [Am] ten times [D] ten. [D]
You'll [G] aye be a [Em] slave to the [C] ocean [Am] wave,
'Til you're [D] back on the [D] sea once a-[G]gain. [G]

slower

'Til you're [D] back on the [D] sea once a-[G]gain. [D]/ [G]/

